Wichita Terminal Elevator Co. v. Commissioner, 6 T.C. 1158 (1946)

r
r

A corporation cannot avoid tax liability on the sale of its assets by formally dissolving and distributing those assets to its shareholders, who then complete the sale, if the sale was effectively negotiated by the corporation before dissolution.

r
r

Summary

r

Wichita Terminal Elevator Company (

© 2025 SCOTUSreports.com. All rights reserved.