de Free v. Commissioner, T.C. Memo. 1961-325

Goodwill, especially locational goodwill, requires a substantial period to develop and cannot be considered a long-term capital asset if the business has operated for only a short time.

Summary

Petitioner de Free sold his men’s haberdashery business, © 2025 SCOTUSreports.com. All rights reserved.